 Intimations – July 2026

July Retiring Offering

The Scottish Bible Society is a charity founded in 1809 that works to make the Bible accessible to people in their own language, in a usable format, and at an affordable price. It equips people to share the Bible and supports initiatives that make the scriptures available both in Scotland and globally, often in partnership with churches and other organisations. The society's work includes distributing Bibles, translating scripture, and supporting literacy and other transformative projects.

Items for August Intimations should be sent to the following email address mocpcchurch@gmail.com, by Wednesday 22nd July. As some groups will be taking a break over July and August, it would be useful to have the stopping and restart dates plus any other information you think will be useful. So they can be included in the Intimation sheets and website.
