June Retiring Offering

Beatson Cancer Charity believe that no-one should face cancer on their own. A cancer diagnosis is a traumatic and life-changing event, not just for the patient, but also for their family.

Beatson Cancer Charity provides a comprehensive range of wellbeing and specialist services including complementary therapies, specialist health and work support and specialist activities delivered by charity staff and volunteers.

Intimations

Items for July/August Intimations should be sent to the following email address mocpchurch@gmail.com, by Wednesday 25th June. It would be useful to know when the various organisations will be stopping for a break over summer, so the details can be included.

The Messenger

The next issue of The Messenger is to be distributed in the village before GoMAD begins in July. The deadline for sending in articles is 13th of June. They should be sent in to mocpchurch@gmail.com
